WORLD'S FINEST
TRUCK BODY

ITB truck bodies use our rugged Snaplock construction to provide superior strength and appearance.

Intercontinental Truck Body (ITB) is proud to be the finest specialty body and equipment company in the world. ITB has been manufacturing the most practical, reliable equipment since 1979. We are proud to build our products in Conrad, Montana.

Currently, ITB manufactures 600-700 vehicles per calendar year. Our customers include small business, national and international companies, state governments, foreign governments and the US military.

ITB's commercial truck division stems from our legendary aluminum Snaplock technology. This is the superior construction for durability and appearance in the delivery body industry. The patented technology offers a strong, rivet-free side wall. Our extensive product line includes van bodies (parcel, refrigerated, & custom), flatbeds, landscape bodies, service bodies, and grain bodies. ITB has allocations to order cab chassis directly from Ford, Dodge, Chevrolet and GMC to customer specifications, or accept dealer drop-ships from these and many other chassis manufacturers. We provide customers with superior quality products and we stand behind our truck bodies with a 5-year or 60,000 mile limited warranty.

ITB's continuous investment in people and equipment allow for excellent engineering and implementation of new product lines.

In addition to the bodies that we manufacture, ITB is also a distributor for well-known brands such as Knapheide, Texoma, Waltco, Adrian, Tommygate, Pro-Tech, Maxon, Anthony, Carrier, Thermo King, Hehr and many others; each provide further opportunities to fit our customers' needs.

ITB's continuous investment in equipment allows for engineering & implementation of new product lines.
